LEADERSHIP

TOM BENSON

In a career in business and professional sports that spanned over 70 years, Tom Benson was an endearing figure in his hometown of New Orleans as well as throughout the NBA and the NFL. Mr. Benson served as the owner of the New Orleans Pelicans since 2012 and the New Orleans Saints since 1985 until his death on March 15, 2018. He was survived by his wife Gayle.

In 2012 Mr. Benson purchased the Hornets franchise from the National Basketball Association, which was successfully rebranded as the Pelicans. The objectives in his ownership of the basketball team were the same as his stewardship of the Saints: to produce a team on-the-court that will compete for championships every year, while making a significant positive impact off-the-court in the community. Upon the ownership transfer, construction immediately started on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility adjacent to the Saints practice fields, which now comprises the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, with the entire Pelicans organization being housed together for the first time in the franchise's history. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone nearly a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD video scoreboard in 2015, along with several fan upgrades. On the court, after Mr. Benson inherited a team that finished with the worst record in the NBA's Western Conference in 2011-12, the Pelicans have built through a combination of the draft, free agent signings and trades to become a stable and successful organization, reaching the playoffs for the second time in 2018 since the purchase of the club.

BENSON MILESTONES

1985: Ownership of the Saints officially transferred to Tom Benson on May 31 and he becomes managing general partner of the club.

1986: The Benson influence begins as the owner puts his management team in charge of the franchise, hiring Jim Finks as president/general manager and Jim Mora as head coach.

1987: The Saints post a franchise-best 12-3 record—including victories in the final nine contests—and make the playoffs for the first time.

1988: The Saints finish 10-6, posting a double-digit victory total again and achieving consecutive winning seasons for the first time.

1989: Mr. Benson appointed Chairman of the league's most influential group, the NFL Finance Committee, a position he kept for three separate stints, before most recently stepping down in 2013.

1990: After winning six of their last nine games, the Saints earn their second playoff appearance by finishing second in the NFC West.

1991: New Orleans clinched its first division championship with an 11-5 record and capture the NFC West.

1992: The Saints post a 12-4 record and host a playoff game for the second-straight year. Mr. Benson assumes sole ownership of the club.

1993: The Saints finish second in the NFC West, with the club recording its seventh-straight non-losing season.

1996: Marking a first for the organization, the coaches, players and staff are housed under one roof with the opening of the team's state-of-the-art facility in Metairie.

2000: New Orleans wins the NFC West with a 10-6 record. The Saints win their first playoff game, a 31-28 thriller over St. Louis in the Superdome.

2002: The city hosts its fourth Super Bowl during Mr. Benson's tenure as owner. Mr. Benson promotes Mickey Loomis to general manager of football operations.

2003: Mr. Benson again appointed Chairman of the Finance Committee; Construction of new indoor practice facility and other improvements are finished before training camp, as the club holds camp in Metairie for the first time in franchise history.

2005: After Hurricane Katrina ravaged the Gulf South on the verge of the NFL's opening weekend, Benson was forced to move the club's entire operation. Under his leadership, the Saints were able to continue the season, including holding four games in Baton Rouge. The club established the Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund, raising over $1 million.

2006: The team returns to Louisiana, with Mr. Benson positioning the club as an emblem of the state's resolve and determination in rebuilding. The Saints—selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time—win the NFC South title under the guidance of new head coach Sean Payton and the spark of free agent acquisition Drew Brees, finishing at 10-6. The victory total included a memorable, 23-3 win over Atlanta in the reopening of the Superdome. The team advanced to the NFC Championship for the first time in franchise history. Payton and Loomis were consensus choices for the NFL Coach of the Year and NFL Executive of the Year awards respectively.

2008: Mr. Benson purchases WVUE, making FOX-8 the only network-affiliated television station in the New Orleans market that is wholly locally owned. The Saints defeat the San Diego Chargers at London's Wembley Stadium, playing in their first regular season game outside the United States.

2009: In what Mr. Benson considers part of his legacy in Louisiana, the New Orleans native reaches an agreement with the state through 2025 that will create a new Sports Development District downtown, including a completely renovated Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The Benson family purchased and redeveloped two properties—each adjacent to the Superdome—an economic windfall for the region without any new taxes. New Orleans is selected by the NFL to host Super Bowl XLVII, to be played on February 3, 2013, with Mr. Benson serving as the city's leading advocate in the campaign. It is the fifth time New Orleans will host the Super Bowl since he's owned the club. On the field, the Saints enjoy their most successful season in franchise history. New Orleans sets a club record for victories with a 13-3 regular season, capturing the NFC South title. The Saints then hosted the NFC Championship game for the first time and advance to their first Super Bowl with a 31-28 overtime victory over the Minnesota Vikings on January 24, 2010. New Orleans then defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 31-17, on February 7, 2010, in Super Bowl XLIV at Sun Life Stadium in South Florida to give the Saints their first-ever NFL title.

2010: Sparked by a six game winning streak, the Saints finish 11-5 and qualify for the playoffs, making back-to-back postseason appearances for the first time since 1992.

2011: The club's completely renovated stadium makes its debut as the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, following a 10-year naming rights and sponsorship agreement with the automaker. The Saints enjoy an eight-game winning streak to end the regular season and finish 13-3, capturing their second NFC South title in three seasons. The team sets the NFL single-season record for total net yardage, while Brees and RB Darren Sproles set the NFL's single-season passing yardage and all-purpose yardage records.

2012: Continuing his longstanding commitment to the Gulf South region and the City of New Orleans, Mr. Benson agrees to purchase the National Basketball Association's New Orleans Hornets. The Saints practice facility undergoes a multimillion dollar renovation and expansion, which will house both the NFL and NBA clubs under one roof. Brees sets an NFL record that stood since 1960, as he threw a touchdown pass in 54 consecutive games.

2013: The City of New Orleans hosts Super Bowl XLVII on February 3, the 10th time the Crescent City has hosted the league's championship game (tied for first with South Florida) and the fifth time during Mr. Benson's ownership tenure.

2014: The Pelicans make their debut under the team's new namesake on Wednesday, Oct. 30 at Opening Night against the Indiana Pacers. New Orleans and the Pelicans host the 2014 NBA All-Star festivities from Feb. 14-16 for the second time in six years. For the first time in its history, the home of New Orleans' NBA team has naming rights as the New Orleans Arena becomes the Smoothie King Center as the locally-born company makes the ultimate commitment to the city.

2015: The Pelicans make the postseason for the first time under Mr. Benson's ownership. The team finishes the regular season 45-37, marking both the first winning season and playoff appearance since the 2010-11 season. The postseason run is the first under the new Pelicans identity.

2017: New Orleans hosts NBA All-Star Weekend for the second time under Mr. Benson's ownership, and the third time overall, making the Crescent City one of just six current NBA markets that have hosted the event three times. Pelicans forward Anthony Davis is named a starter for the Western Conference and earns MVP honors of the NBA All-Star Game, scoring an All-Star Game record 52 points. On July 26, the New Orleans Pelicans and Saints announce a multi-year agreement with Ochsner Health System to re-name the campus on Airline Drive the Ochsner Sports Performance Center. On Oct. 25, the Pelicans and Zatarain's announce a new integrated marketing partnership featuring the company's name, brand and logo on the team's uniforms beginning with the 2017-18 NBA season.

2018: The 2017-18 New Orleans Pelicans finish the regular season with 48 wins - the third most in frenchise history - and make the playoffs for the second time since Mr. Benson's purchase. New Orleans secures a first round sweep of third seeded Portland, advancing to the Western Conference Semifinals for just the third time in franchise history. In March, Mr. Benson passes away at the age of 90, and Mrs. Benson becomes owner of the Pelicans, Saints and Mr. Benson's business enterprises.

2019: Mrs. Benson completes her first season as Owner of the Pelicans and the organization begins taking steps for the next chapter of professional basketball in the Crescent City. On April 17, Mrs. Benson names highly sought-after front office veteran David Griffin as the new Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations. Upon Griffin's appointment, the Pelicans also add renouned athletic trainer Aaron Nelson as Vice President of Player Care & Performance on May 8, Trajan Langdon as General Manager on May 19, and WNBA-veteran Swin Cash as Vice President of Basketball Operations and Team Development on June 10, making her one of the highest ranking female executives in the NBA. On May 14, New Orleans defies the odds, and, with just a six-percent chance, wins the 2019 NBA Draft Lottery, leading to the franchise selecting Duke's Zion Williamson with the first overall pick in the 2019 NBA Draft on June 20. In July, Griffin and his front office staff executes the trade of All-Star forward Anthony Davis to the Los Angeles Lakers that nets the Pelicans a historic number of young players, draftees and future draft picks, radically re-shaping the roster ahead of the 2019-20 season. During the off-season, the Pelicans' practice facility at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center undergoes a multi-million dollar renovation, which includes a completly re-invisioned weight room, medical facilities and team locker room.

2020: Mrs. Benson formed the Gayle Benson Community Assistance Fund, starting with a personal $1 million donation in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. In addition to her donation, a significant amount of additional money has been raised through her encouragement and the commitment of the local business community, with the donations being disbursed through the Greater New Orleans Foundation with an emphasis on individuals working in the restaurant, service and gig industries who have been severely impacted by the pandemic. In addition, Mrs. Benson created the New Orleans Pelicans and Saints Social Justice Leadership Alliance. An internal action team, the Social Justice Leadership Alliance is guided by the direction and advice of Pelicans and Saints players. The Alliance was created to listen and learn, create programming and develop action items to impact positive social justice change. The primary areas in which the Social Justice Leadership Alliance will focus include education and civic engagement, justice system, police and economic reform.

GAYLE BENSON

GOVERNOR

Gayle Benson provides leadership for the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints as Governor, succeeding her husband, Tom Benson, who passed away on March 15, 2018, after purchasing of the Saints in 1985 and the Pelicans franchise in 2012. The New Orleans native is an accomplished business professional and philanthropist with strong ties to the local community and who is dedicated to contributing to the growth and enhancement of the Gulf South region.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson worked together to build championship-level NFL and NBA organizations, housed in state-of-the-art facilities at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, Mercedes-Benz Superdome and Smoothie King Center, while making a positive impact in the community away from the football field and basketball court as well.

With the Saints franchise under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Benson, the team has reached new heights since 2006, when they entrusted Executive-Vice President/General Manger Mickey Loomis to hire Sean Payton as head coach and sign quarterback Drew Brees. Since those moves, the franchise has reached its highest point of success, posting a 146-93 record from 2006-19, featuring eight playoff berths, six division titles, three NFC Championship appearances and the Super Bowl XLIV title. Off-the-field, the Mercedes-Benz Superdome has been completely renovated and is currently undergoing a multiple-phase enhancement. Saints games have been sold-out on a season ticket basis for every campaign since 2006, with a waiting list of over 73,000 and 145 consecutive sellouts going into 2020. The NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 teams has resulted in the Saints being ranked with the highest overall score for Fan Gameday Satisfaction each of the past three seasons.The club has also positioned itself as a leader in the community, assisting with the recovery from several natural disasters as well as the COVID-19 pandemic, while also working to enhance the region as a whole.

In Mrs. Benson's first two seasons of ownership, New Orleans has posted back-to-back 13-3 campaigns and NFC South division titles, reaching the NFC Championship in the 2018 campaign. No team has matched their 14 road victories since 2018. Their 27 wins (regular season and postseason) rank second in the NFL during the two-season period. Twelve Saints have received a total of 19 Pro Bowl selections, including a franchise-record eleven players in 2019. Eight Saints over the past two seasons have received Associated Press All-Pro honors, three – defensive end Cameron Jordan, tackle Ryan Ramczyk and wide receiver Michael Thomas, both seasons. In 2019, Thomas set the NFL single-season record for receptions in a season as he was selected as the Associated Press NFL Offensive Player of the Year. Over the past two seasons, Brees has become the league's all-time leader in completions, passing yardage and touchdown passes.

Following in the footsteps of her late husband, who played a significant role in the city of New Orleans hosting five Super Bowls during his ownership and wielded extensive influence and respect among owners with a long tenure as Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mrs. Benson has become instrumental with her influence and leadership in league issues, serving on the Audit, Business Ventures and Hall of Fame Committees. She helped the city land a future Super Bowl, which will mark the 11th time that Louisiana and the Crescent City will serve as a host, tying with Miami for the most Super Bowls by a host city. The economic impact of Super Bowl XLVII, played in 2013, which Mr. Benson successfully campaigned for, was $480 million, not to mention the exposure and charitable contributions the NFL makes during Super Bowl week that extends for generations. Mrs. Benson's committed to continuing to bring Super Bowls to New Orleans.

Immediately upon Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the former Hornets franchise from the NBA in 2012, construction began on a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility to house the entire organization together and the franchise would also be rebranded as the Pelicans. Through agreements with the State of Louisiana upon the purchase of the Pelicans, the Smoothie King Center has undergone a complete renovation since the 2012 purchase, featuring a new center-hung HD scoreboard, which debuted in 2015, along with several additional fan upgrades. Through this commitment, NBA All-Star Weekend was awarded to New Orleans in 2014 and 2017, making the city one of just six current NBA markets to host the mid-season event at least three times. Active in league affairs, Mrs. Benson, serves as a member of the NBA's Labor Relations Committee and also was named the NBA Foundation Board of Directors on October 9. On the court, she oversaw a significant overhaul of the Pelicans organization in 2019 when she hired Executive Vice President of Basketball Operations David Griffin. Through the support of these organizational improvements by Mrs. Benson, combined with New Orleans winning the NBA Draft Lottery and selecting the 2018-19 AP College Player of the Year in Duke forward Zion Williamson with the first overall pick and the 2019 acquisition of forward Brandon Ingram, a 2020 NBA All-Star and winner of the league's Most Improved Player award, the Pelicans have established a solid foundation for the future.

Community investment and giving back have been hallmarks of Mr. and Mrs. Benson's ownership of the Saints and Pelicans. This tradition continues under Mrs. Benson's stewardship as she has further enriched the New Orleans community through her support to causes in the health and wellness, cancer care, education, arts and faith-based sectors.

As dedicated corporate citizens, the Saints and Pelicans annually put millions of dollars back into the community in financial support, in-kind donations, charitable appearances and donations of goods and services. Mrs. Benson's philanthropic leadership has been recognized far and wide since becoming Owner.

Mrs. Benson has always responded to conditions that affect the local community adversely, becoming quickly involved and taking action. At the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic this March, she personally donated $1 million to create the Gayle Benson Community Assistance Fund, partnering with the Greater New Orleans Foundation to help local organizations and individuals in need with donations and distribution of both monies and goods. In June, used the platform of the Saints and Pelicans to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across both the Gulf South and the country, she formed the Social Justice Leadership Coalition. The coalition, with key front office executives and players from both franchises in leadership positions, will advocate for issues of change in minority communities.

In March, 2018, she and Mr. Benson (posthumously), received a Dermot McGlinchey Lifetime Achievement Award from Tulane University, honoring those who have demonstrated service, volunteer involvement and commitment to Tulane and their hometown communities. In September, 2018, she was inducted into the University of New Orleans' Hall of Distinction, along with her late husband (posthumously). In 2015, the couple were honored by the regional chapter of the Anti-Defamation League with the A.I. Botnick Torch of Liberty Award. In 2014, Mrs. Benson was honored by the New Orleans Council for Community and Justice with its Weiss Award, recognizing achievement for exceptional civic and humanitarian contributions.

In 2019, Mrs. Benson received several important honors. She was honored by Xavier University of Louisiana with the Sister Maris Stella "Women of Faith" Award and was recognized by the United Negro College Fund with the group's MASKED Award, for her support of educational opportunities for all. Mrs. Benson was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/College Football Hall of Fame with its Distinguished American Award. The National World War II Museum selected her as an American Spirit Medallion recipient. The Greater New Orleans Foundation honored Mrs. Benson with the organization's Spark Plug Award, given to an individual whose philanthropy in the greater New Orleans community has been exemplary.

In addition to serving on the boards of several local educational institutions and the New Orleans Museum of Art, Mrs. Benson also is a member of the Audubon Commission, which oversees the Audubon Nature Institute.

Mrs. Benson's been a longtime trusted and valued member of the local Catholic community, reflecting her deep faith. She's worked tirelessly with the Archdiocese of New Orleans' Catholic Charities organization and its umbrella agencies that feature nearly 50 programs and three affiliated ministries that deliver health and human services to the poor and vulnerable in the eight parishes which the Archdiocese serves, as well as food and nutrition services statewide. Mrs. Benson has also worked closely with St. Louis Cathedral's Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) program. Mrs. Benson's support of the Church has been recognized on numerous occasions. In 2002, she received the Medal of the Order of St. Louis Award for her dedication to the Church. In 2010, she became an Honorary Oblate of Mary Immaculate. She holds a leadership role after being inducted as Dame Commander with Star in the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. In 2012, Mr. and Mrs. Benson received from Pope Benedict XVI the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice award-for outstanding service to the Church and the Pontiff, the highest Papal award granted to a lay person. In recognition of their longstanding support of Catholic education, the couple also received the 2010 St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award from the National Catholic Educational Association.
Mrs. Benson began her professional career in 1968 as a manager for noted New York-based costume jeweler Celebrity Jewelry, overseeing and managing the daily operation of over 40 sales associates. She then branched out into real estate development, which allowed her to successfully integrate her passion for interior design with property management. Her first real estate transaction occurred in 1978 when she purchased a home in New Orleans's Irish Channel and then sold the property eight months later after extensive restoration. She would go on to purchase, manage and eventually sell several more properties, primarily in the city's Uptown district.

In 1975, Mrs. Benson began a 30-year career in the design industry, a business where she achieved tremendous success. Throughout the course of her interior design career she was recognized with numerous professional awards and served as an inaugural member on the Louisiana State Board of Licensing for Interior Designers for four years. She directed numerous major design efforts with her clients, including the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, several of the city's most prestigious hotels, local supermarket chains and automobile dealerships.

In 2000, Mrs. Benson worked with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome on renovations to the iconic New Orleans landmark's third and fourth level public spaces, in addition to renovations on select suites. She also owned and developed a commercial real estate building on the corner of Laura and Octavia Streets, a women's clothing private enterprise called "Toujours la Ligne" and a designer's showroom called "Designers Resource" which served as a wholesale location for designers and architects seeking to purchase fabric, wall coverings and accessories. The Men of Fashion Committee recognized Mrs. Benson during her career as one of the "Ten Best Dressed Women in New Orleans".

In addition to her ownership of the Saints and Pelicans, Mrs. Benson established GMB Racing Stables in 2014 with an initial purchase of seven colts and hiring three veteran trainers, all with Louisiana ties. In 2016, two of the thoroughbreds, Mo Tom and Tom's Ready participated in the Kentucky Derby. Her Lone Sailor horse ran in the 2018 Kentucky Derby and Preakness. She owns Benson Farm at Greenwood Lodge in Lexington, Ky, a 1,000-acre farm. She also serves as the Owner of three local automotive dealerships, Best Chevrolet, Cadillac of New Orleans and Mercedes-Benz of New Orleans, Benson Tower, Benson Capital Partners and also owns the Hyatt Regency New Orleans as part of a partnership.

Mrs. Benson was born in New Orleans and grew up in Old Algiers. She began her education in Catholic schools and in 1966 graduated from Martin Behrman High School. In 2019, she received an Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters from Loyola University New Orleans, where she was the commencement speaker. She also received an honorary degree, serving as Our Lady of Holy Cross College's 2015 commencement keynote speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Benson married on October 29, 2004 at the Immaculate Conception Memorial Chapel in San Antonio, Texas. Mr. Benson died on March 15, 2018.

DENNIS LAUSCHA

PRESIDENT

Dennis Lauscha, a native New Orleanian, was named president of the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints in 2012.

Lauscha attended Jesuit High School and received degrees in Business, first from the University of Alabama, followed by an M.B.A. from Loyola University. Starting out his career as a C.P.A., Lauscha worked for a major global financial services firm before his decades long career with the Saints. He first joined the Saints in 1998 as Treasurer and as a result of his hard work, loyalty and business acumen, Lauscha rose through the executive ranks to serve as Vice President, Senior Vice President and Executive Vice President before reaching his now esteemed post of President. In his role, he oversees the club's financial operations, government affairs, marketing, ticket and suite sales, legal, stadium, community affairs, human resources, business intelligence and information technology. He also serves as a representative for both clubs at NBA and NFL Owners meetings.

In addition to his duties with the Pelicans and Saints, Lauscha maintains multiple roles within other holdings of Mrs. Benson, including her automotive dealerships, real estate holdings, GMB Racing, Benson Capital Partners and other investments.

Lauscha's collaborative style, financial acumen and long-term view has played a key role as a member of a contingent that has negotiated agreements for both the Saints and Pelicans with the state of Louisiana that has resulted in long-term lease agreements, continuous improvements to their playing and practice facilities, revitalization of the surrounding areas and revenue generation for the state without new taxes for citizens.

In 2009, Lauscha helped negotiate the partnership with the Louisiana Governor that continues the Saints' long-term commitment to the state. The deal included the purchase and redevelopment of the former New Orleans Centre, which has been transformed into Champions Square and the Benson Tower property adjacent to the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, with the stadium itself undergoing extensive renovations and improvements. Since playing a key role in Mr. and Mrs. Benson's purchase of the Pelicans in 2012, Lauscha has helped broker agreements with the state to upgrade the team's playing and practice facilities. Following successful negotiations, the Pelicans are committed to the state through 2024 and the Smoothie King Center has undergone over $50 million in renovations and improvements.

In 2015, Lauscha helped negotiate an agreement with the state that resulted in $40 million in enhancements for fans of both clubs. The Mercedes-Benz Superdome had state-of-the-art video boards added in 2016 in addition to renovated suites and other fan amenities, while a new center-hung HD video scoreboard was installed in the Smoothie King Center. Most recently Lauscha brokered an agreement with the state that has resulted in a long-term lease extension for the Saints and a multiple-phase transformative renovation of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, to keep the stadium among the world's elite sports facilities. Lauscha has also played a key role in finalizing 2011 and 2014 groundbreaking naming rights and sponsorship agreements for both teams' playing facilities with Mercedes-Benz USA and Smoothie King.

Lauscha was instrumental in the 2003 expansion of the Saints training facility. He later oversaw a renovation and expansion of the facilities and administrative offices for the Saints and Pelicans from 2012-13, while directing the construction of a basketball practice facility. The clubs are now housed on the same site at the Ochsner Sports Performance Center, featuring some of the top facilities in professional sports.

Lauscha's committed to help attract major sporting events to New Orleans. He's a key member of the team that actively pursues future Super Bowls and NCAA Basketball Final Four Championships for New Orleans – and was instrumental in landing Super Bowl XLVII, which was played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in 2013 and the guarantee of a future Super Bowl, which was awarded by the NFL in 2018. After Mr. and Mrs. Bensons' 2012 purchase of the Pelicans, the city has hosted NBA All-Star Games in 2014 and 2017.

Active throughout sports and the community, Lauscha currently serves as a member of the Business Council of New Orleans & The River Region, as a board member of the Audubon Nature Institute, a member of the board of trustees for Loyola University, and as a trustee of the National World War II Museum. Lauscha has completed terms as board president of the Preservation Resource Center, president of the regional chapter of the Boy Scouts of America and as a member of the Blight Transition New Orleans Task Force, the Mayor's Transition Committee, the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee, the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Game Host Committees, the 2012 NCAA Final Four Host Committee, the Loyola University New Orleans School of Business Visiting Committee, the NBA's Team Advisory Council of Presidents and Team CBA Advisory Committee, the NFL's Ticketing Strategy Working Group, the NFL's 100th Anniversary Committee, the NFL's Sports Betting Committee, the Stuart Hall School Board of Trustees and on the New Orleans Museum of Art Board.

Lauscha's dealings with the teams, state officials and local organizations have provided an opportunity for community involvement. His professional and charitable work was recognized by New Orleans CityBusiness, when he was selected as one of the 40 Most Influential Members of the Community. The honor is bestowed on those who are laying the groundwork for a better city. In 2010, he was named the Alumnus of the Year by Loyola's College of Business and was named to the 2010 Class of Role Models by the Young Leadership Council. He was honored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl Chapter of the National Football Foundation/ College Football Hall of Fame with its 2014 Distinguished American Award. In 2015, Lauscha gave the commencement address to the graduates of the University of New Orleans. In 2016, he was inducted into the Order of West Range for the Pi Kappa Alpha Foundation. He was honored as a 2019 Laureate of Junior Achievement's Greater New Orleans chapter. Lauscha has also completed the NFL Managers Program at Stanford University's Executive Education Graduate School of Business.

SR. VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Ben Hales was named Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints in August, 2017 and oversees business operations, marketing and community initiatives for both teams, as well as other business ventures for Gayle Benson. Hales, who enters his ninth season with the Pelicans and 21st season with the Saints, previously spent seven seasons as the Saints' Vice President of Marketing and Business Development.

On a daily basis, Hales directs the Pelicans' and Saints' marketing and creative efforts, as well as community initiatives and game and event presentation. He is also intricately involved in both clubs' critical planning of short-term and long-range marketing and operations efforts. Hales' duties also entail facility operations at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and Smoothie King Center, broadcasting partnerships, promotions, advertising, special events and youth programs.

During the 2012-13 NBA season, the Hornets franchise announced that they would re-brand following the season and become the New Orleans Pelicans. Hales was instrumental in the re-branding efforts from start to finish, helping to first conceptualize the look to represent the Pelicans namesake and leading the planning for the official announcement in January, 2013.

In October, 2011, Hales finalized a ground-breaking ten-year naming rights deal for the Saints' iconic stadium with Mercedes-Benz USA. Throughout his tenure, he has helped create and implement a variety of innovative opportunities for both local and national partners to build relationships with the club, including the development of Patron Saints Partners, a premium sponsorship program. Under his direction the club added a sponsorship and fulfillment department, to ensure corporate partners receive the highest level of service.

The Saints have increased the number and variety of television and radio programs after Hales assumed the role of the club's primary programming negotiator. In addition to three weekly in-season television programs, the Saints now produce numerous specials that have aired on different local television stations and on the team's digital media platforms throughout each season.

Hales joined the Saints in 2000 as a corporate sales account executive. In 2001, he was promoted to corporate sales and broadcasting manager before becoming a director the following year and assuming the responsibilities of business and marketing operations.

Prior to joining the Saints, Hales worked in television advertising in New Orleans. In addition to his community efforts on behalf of the team, Hales is a member of GNO, Inc.'s Board of Directors, the Coalition for Coastal Resilience and Economy (CCRE) and the Catholic Community Foundation while also serving on the Super Bowl Bid Executive Committee and the NCAA Final Four Committee. Hales has also recently served on the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee Executive Committee and NBA All-Star Host Committee.

In 2013, Hales was honored as a Young Leadership Council (YLC) Role Model and was named as one of The Gambit's 40 under 40 in 2012.

A New Orleans native and longtime Saints terrace and plaza level season ticket holder before joining the club, Hales earned a degree in English from the University of Mississippi in 1996.

MICHAEL STANFIELD

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES

As Senior Vice President of Sales of the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints, Michael Stanfield is a key member of the front office for both clubs. The long-time sports administrative executive is responsible for overseeing the entire consumer and corporate sales efforts for both the New Orleans Pelicans and New Orleans Saints, the two revenue-generating facets of both organizations.

Entering his ninth season with the Pelicans and 21st with the Saints, Stanfield is responsible for all of both clubs' sales efforts – directing the sale of season tickets, group tickets, floor seats and corporate partnerships, developing sales executives to the next level in their field, supervising the lease of the Mercedes-Benz Superdome and Smoothie King Center luxury suites, managing food and beverage for both facilities, overseeing a vast merchandising business for both teams flanked by a Saints and Pelicans team store, as well as maintaining the clubs' high standards of customer service and retention. Since taking over leadership of the Pelicans' ticket sales and merchandising efforts, the organization has seen an increase in season-ticket sales and merchandise sales that were the second-biggest growth in the NBA.

Under his direction, the Saints have surpassed the majority of the club's ticket sales milestones, including selling out on a season-ticket basis for the first time in franchise history in 2006 – a feat that has reached 14-straight seasons. In addition the club has leased every Superdome suite since the beginning of the 2008 campaign. Saints official merchandise has grown annually into one of the NFL's top sellers. Stanfield also supervises the ticket, suite sales and box office personnel on a daily basis, in addition to serving as the food and beverage service liaison with the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Since Stanfield's arrival in 2000, the Saints have sold out every contest in the Superdome but one. Prior to the 2006 season, an innovative season-ticket marketing program fueled the rise of filling the stadium on a season-ticket basis. Fans on all economic levels were reached in an effort to retain existing accounts while cultivating new ones, and those efforts built a waiting list that has continued to grow for season tickets for the first time in franchise history. In 2017, the team established a single-season regular season attendance record for games played at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome with 585,113 fans attending Saints games.

Stanfield has also helped oversee the institution of a direct mail and email database to generate ticket sales and excitement surrounding the club and initiated other creative promotional campaigns by using the club's ever-expanding social and new media platforms. The Saints have been ranked number one by the National Football League in Overall Gameday Satisfaction for the past two seasons in a survey conducted by the NFL's League Observation Program and third party Expert Review Audits of all 32 clubs in an eight-category review. In 2017, the Pelicans were ranked first in the NBA in season ticket holder satisfaction in a league-commissioned survey.

At the same time as making fan experience a top priority, Stanfield's also been deeply involved in the extension and expansion of the already sizable corporate sponsorship base for both clubs. In recent years, Stanfield has directed the extension of long-term agreements with numerous valued partners like Cox Communications, Entergy and Verizon, as well as the expansion of the Ochsner Health System partnership to include naming rights for the Ochsner Sports Performance Center.

A graduate of St. Leo (Fla.) University, Stanfield started his career in sports, serving as the assistant general manager of the Clinton (Iowa), Class A baseball team in 1988 and had attained impressive sales results in sports prior to joining the Saints in 2000. In 2007, Stanfield completed Stanford Business School's Executive Education NFL-Stanford Program for Managers, an educational program and honor known league-wide as an important training ground for promising executives.

Stanfield is on the Board of Directors for the Jefferson Chamber of Commerce, and served a member of the Super Bowl XLVII Host Committee and the Executive Host Committee for the 2014 and 2017 NBA All-Star Games. A sports industry public speaker, Stanfield has given presentations at many national events. He is also an active speaker at numerous youth foundations and professional groups both nationally and throughout the Gulf South.

Stanfield and his wife Stacey, have one daughter, Olivia.

STAN VAN GUNDY

HEAD COACH

On October 22, 2020, Stan Van Gundy was named the head coach of the New Orleans Pelicans – the seventh in the franchise's history. Van Gundy holds a career-coaching record of 523-384 (.577) in 12 NBA seasons. He's taken his teams to the postseason eight times and holds a 48-43 (.527) playoff record with the Miami Heat, Orlando Magic and Detroit Pistons.

Prior to joining the Pelicans organization, Van Gundy most recently served as President of Basketball Operations and Head Coach for the Detroit Pistons from 2014-18.

After a 32-50 record in his first season, Van Gundy led the Pistons to a 44-38 record in 2015-16 (a 12-game improvement), leading Detroit to its first above-.500 record since 2007-08 and first postseason appearance since the 2008-09 season. It marked Van Gundy's eighth playoff appearance in 10 seasons as a head coach and also his eighth season finishing with a better than .500 record. In his four seasons with Detroit, Van Gundy led the Pistons to a 152-176 record.

A respected veteran in the NBA and collegiate coaching ranks, Van Gundy earned his 400th NBA career coaching win vs. Atlanta (3/31/15) and became the 10th fastest coach to 400 victories in NBA history. Under his leadership, the Pistons set franchise records for total 3-pointers made in back-to-back seasons (703 in 2014-15 then 740 in 2015-16), 3-point field goals made per game (9.0) in 2015-16 and 3-pointers made in a game with 17 at Cleveland (12/28/14).

Prior to Detroit, he previously coached in the NBA during the 2011- 12 season when he led the Magic to a 37-29 record and a fifth consecutive postseason appearance. He compiled a 259-135 (.657) regular-season record with the Magic from 2007-12 and captured three consecutive Southeast Division titles from 2007-10.

During the 2010-11 season, Orlando finished 52-30 (.634), good for second place in the Southeast Division and fourth-best in the Eastern Conference. The Magic surpassed the 50-win plateau for the fourth consecutive season, setting a new franchise record. Van Gundy became the second-fastest active NBA coach to 300 career wins and the seventh-fastest all-time on December 25, 2010, vs. Boston. He also coached in his 500th career game on March 16 at Milwaukee and had the sixth-most wins in NBA history through 500 contests.

In 2009-10, Van Gundy guided the Magic to the Eastern Conference Finals for the second straight time, after compiling a 59-23 (.720) regular season record. It was the second-best mark in the NBA, and Orlando captured the Southeast Division title for the third consecutive season. Van Gundy was named head coach of the Eastern Conference All-Star team for the second time in his career and guided the East to a 141-139 win at the 2010 NBA All-Star Game in Dallas, TX. He was named the NBA's Eastern Conference Coach of the Month in October/November 2009 and again in April 2010.

During the 2008-09 campaign, Van Gundy guided the Magic through a memorable playoff run, capped off with the 2009 Eastern Conference title and the franchise's second trip to the NBA Finals. During the regular season, Orlando posted a 59-23 (.720) record and captured the Southeast Division title. It was the team's second consecutive division crown and its fourth overall.

In 2007-08, his first season with Orlando, Van Gundy led the Magic to a 52-30 (.634) record and the Southeast Division championship. It was the team's first division crown since 1995-96. Orlando also advanced past the opening round of the NBA Playoffs for the first time since 1996, defeating Toronto, 4-1.

Van Gundy served as head coach of the Miami Heat for two-plus seasons from 2003-05, posting a regular season record of 112-73 and a postseason mark of 17-11. Despite a rash of injuries and a tough schedule, which saw the Heat drop their first seven games, Van Gundy righted the ship and led Miami to a 42-40 record during his first season as head coach in 2003-04. They became just the fourth team since the NBA went to its current playoff format in 1983-84, to reach the playoffs after starting the season with at least seven consecutive losses. The 42 wins was a 17-win improvement from the previous season, the second-best turnaround in franchise history and the fourth-best in the NBA from 2002-03 to 2003-04.

Van Gundy earned NBA Eastern Conference Coach of the Month for March 2004, after leading the Heat to an Eastern Conference-best 12-3 mark during the month. Miami finished the regular season by going 17-4 over its final 21 games, finished second in the Atlantic Division and earned homecourt advantage in the first round of the playoffs. During the 2004 NBA Playoffs, Miami defeated New Orleans during the First Round, 4-3, making Van Gundy just the fourth rookie coach in NBA history to win a decisive seventh game during a playoff series. He guided the Heat to the Eastern Conference Semifinals for just the third time in franchise history, where they eventually fell to top-seeded Indiana in six games.

With the addition of an All-Star center in Shaquille O'Neal, and raised expectations, Van Gundy led the Heat to a 59-23 record in 2004-05, the second-most wins during a single season in team history, and the Southeast Division title. The Heat won the division by 14 games, the largest margin for any division winner in the NBA that season. For the second straight time, he guided the Heat to a 17-win improvement from the previous season, making him only the second coach in NBA history to lead his team to at least 15-win improvements in consecutive seasons.

Van Gundy was named head coach of the Eastern Conference All-Stars for the 2005 NBA All-Star Game in Denver, where he led the East to a 10-point win. He also earned NBA Eastern Conference Coach of the Month honors in both December 2004 and March 2005. The Heat went on a franchise-record 14-game winning streak from December 6 – January 1 and later reeled off 12 consecutive victories from February 26 - March 19, becoming the first Eastern Conference team with a pair of double-digit win streaks in the same season since the 1995-96 NBA Champion Chicago Bulls. During the 2005 NBA Playoffs, Miami advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals, recording four-game sweeps of both New Jersey and Washington. It marked just the second time in Heat history the team reached the Conference Finals and came within minutes of a trip to the NBA Finals, before falling to Detroit in Game 7. It was also the first time in team history that Miami had advanced to at least the Conference Semifinals in consecutive seasons.

Van Gundy spent 12 years with the Heat, arriving prior to the 1995-96 campaign and served as an assistant coach under Pat Riley for two seasons. He was elevated to assistant head coach in 1997, a position he held for six seasons, and was the team's lead assistant until being named head coach on Oct. 24, 2003.

Prior to his tenure with Miami, Van Gundy coached at the University of Wisconsin for three seasons, including head coach in 1994-95. He began his coaching career as an assistant at the University of Vermont from 1981-83, then served as head coach at Castleton State College (VT) from 1983-86. After stints as an assistant coach at Canisius College (1986-87) and Fordham (1987-88), he was head coach at the University of Massachusetts-Lowell from 1988-92. In eight years as a college head coach, Van Gundy compiled a record of 135-92 (.595).

A native of Indio, Ca., Van Gundy was born on August 26, 1959. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and a Bachelor of Science in physical education from SUNY-Brockport in 1981. While at SUNY-Brockport, Van Gundy played basketball for his father, Bill. His brother, Jeff, was a head coach in the NBA for 11 seasons, most recently with the Houston Rockets from 2003-07. Van Gundy and his wife, Kim, have four children.

LOGOS / MARKS

PRIMARY LOGO

PARTIAL LOGO

Wordmark
Inspired by French Quarter street signs.

Fleur-De-Lis
A most notable symbol of New Orleans, the Fleur-de-lis is also represented within the primary and secondary marks. Its roots lie within its French origin and the deep cultural heritage of our city and is thus displayed on the city's flag. The mark, however, came to mean much more after Hurricane Katrina devastated the region, and came to symbolize the heart and resolve of the city.

Crescent Basketball
Coined the "Crescent City" in 1835, New Orleans derived its popular nickname as it was established along the semi-circle bend of the Mississippi River. The crescent shape is thereby represented in several of the marks.

SECONDARY LOGOS

"BIRD-DE-LIS"
Incorporates pelican, fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

CIRCULAR
Incorporates cultural reference to "Crescent City" more formally and includes fleur-de-lis and crescent basketball.

NOLA
Refers to New Orleans, LA and includes fleur-de-lis.

Representative of the state flag of Louisiana. Traditionally represents liberty (as in the City of New Orleans flag).

Secondary - Gold
The raucous embellishment and flourish that represents the spirited life of New Orleans. It's a color indicative of the city itself. It ties together this organization (shared color with the Saints), the rich and diverse history of the city and its culture of celebration. It's the color often found in the "crown" of pelicans and represented the championships we intend to win.

Tertiary - Red
Red signifies fraternity, one blood or union, as with this team of players. It also represents the legend of the mother pelican pricking her own breast to feed her young in times of need, doing whatever it takes to endure. It's found on the throat of this powerful bird and

ERIE BAYHAWKS

On October 24, 2018, the Pelicans, in conjunction with the NBA G League, formally announced that the Pelicans had purchased an NBA G League franchise, which will play at the renovated Legacy Arena in Birmingham, Alabama, with an anticipated inagural season in the Magic City coming in the 2022-23 season.

In an effort to accelerate player development, as well as establish a presence in the NBA G League, the Pelicans' G League affiliate will begin play temporarily in Erie, Pennsylvania as the Erie BayHawks beginning with the 2019-20 season. Upon the completion of renovations to Legacy Arena, the franchise will permanently relocate to Birmingham.

The Pelicans will partner with the BayHawks' current management team, led by Owen McCormick and Matt Bresee, to operate the team in Erie. Most recently, the group in Erie has been in partnership with the Atlanta Hawks to host that team's NBA G League affiliate while its arena in College Park, Georgia, is being completed. Erie has been the home to an NBA G League team since the 2008-09 season.

Since the NBA G League began in 2001, New Orleans has called up a total of 32 players, including 19 in the last five seasons, and have assigned eight players to the G League for development or injury rehabilitation.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

The New Orleans Pelicans community efforts focus on two key initiatives critical to the future success and prosperity of the Gulf South region: the health and sustainability of our coastal wetlands and the health and fitness of our region's children.

In conjunction with our community and corporate partners, the Pelicans continue to execute several outreach programs that positively impact and inspire the lives of individuals in our community.

The health of the coastal wetlands is vital to growth and success of the state and region. The Louisiana wetlands provide 30% of the seafood catch in the contiguous U.S. Our wetlands habitat is also home to a wide variety and number of wildlife and plants.

Over 80% of wetland loss in the United States occurs in Louisiana – the equivalent of 12 basketball courts is lost every 30 minutes. The Gulf Coast has lost more than 55% of the wetlands that were here when the first Europeans arrived in the 15th century – a loss of more than 100 million acres.

The New Orleans Pelicans and the Audubon Nature Institute continue to team up to help preserve Louisiana's coast and wetlands. The long-term partnership focuses specifically on educating students on the effects of coastal restoration on the Region, as well as inspiring them to take action to ensure the long-term health of the coast.

The Pelicans organization is an advocate for the health and wellness of children in the Gulf South. With the ongoing goal of helping kids find the excitement in being active, the Pelicans host their Junior Training Camp program presented by Smoothie King, and Ochsner Health System. Junior Training Camps engage students in activities focused on creating a fun and memorable basketball experience, while also being active and healthy.

The Pelicans and Biddy Basketball, an internationally recognized youth basketball development program, have partnered with the goal of promoting and growing local youth participation in basketball. They work closely together on the organization of numerous basketball and life skills clinics across the Gulf South region, enhancing the branding and uniform experiences for the players, creating special nights, tournaments and promotions at New Orleans Pelicans home games while continually emphasizing and highlighting the efforts of Biddy Basketball and youth basketball. Biddy Basketball, which has been headquartered in New Orleans since the 1960's, adheres to its mission of providing instructions and guidelines for properly developing fundamentally sound basketball skills while also helping children gain knowledge, skills and competencies in basketball coupled with learning the importance of teamwork and other important social skills. Biddy Basketball has implemented smaller basketballs, lower goals and the distance of the free throw line to better fit the younger athletes. These simple modifications permit the players to learn the fundamentals of the game and to develop their ball handling skills with regard to their age and physical abilities.

The Pelicans also support the Jr. NBA presented by Under Armour initiative, the NBA's youth basketball participation program for boys and girls ages 6-14. The Jr. NBA teaches the fundamental skills as well as the core values of the game at the grassroots level in an effort to help grow and improve the youth basketball experience for players, coaches and parents.
